Vendor Application for 2022 Tazewell Comic Con
Saturday, October 22, 2022 (11am – 3pm) at Nuckolls Hall

The Tazewell Comic Con is sponsored by Tazewell County Public Library and the TCPL Friends of the Library. Vendors must pay an upfront, non-refundable $10 per table fee (2 table max). Make checks payable to “TCPL Friends of the Library.” Please send the application and check to: “Attn: Chris Wilkes, Tazewell County Public Library, 129 Main Street, P.O. Box 929, Tazewell, VA 24651.”

Name of Contact: _______________________________________________________________________

Name of Business (if applicable): __________________________________________________________

Phone Number(s): _______________________________________________________________________

Email Address: _________________________________________________________________________

Website and/or Facebook Page (if applicable): ______________________________________________

Type of Vendor:
  o Food*
  o Retail
  o Artist^
  o Writer^
  o Community Organization~

Please describe what you will sell:
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

Signature: _______________________________ Date: _______________________________

* Food Vendors must have a Virginia Department of Health permit and show proof.

^ Artists & Writers must attach an example of their work to this application or send an email to jwilkes@tcplweb.org with a link to their work.

~ Community organizations do not need to pay the $10 fee, but should offer a free craft, items, activities, or books that are Comic Con related.

Please call Chris Wilkes at (276) 988-2541 for additional questions.